

This Summer—Let's Be Radical Readers

How to be a Radical Reader:

1. Turn on subtitles on your TV for at least (1) hour a day and read while you watch TV. Log your hours on the form provided at hilhamelementary.com
2. Read at least (5) books giving a brief overview of each book. Find the form on-line at hilhamelementary.com.
3. Write about a trip that you take this summer (even if the trip is to Wal-Mart) and then read about the trip to a family member or friend. Have that person that you read it to sign the paper and bring the paper to school on the first day.

What Happens if I am a Radical Reader?
